parent also has the ability to produce video spots for airing on television. Reg sent an email to principals across the state, promoting DTWT. A letter promoting the same was sent to all schools superintendents. DMC Committee – Pat Berckman spoke about the great presentation given by POST officers our annual meeting. Cuong gave a presentation to the Hispanic Latino Advisory Council to the Governor on November 4. The goal was to raise awareness of DMC and ask the group for the input. Discussion did not go as smoothly as hoped for, but Cuong continues to work with them The same presentation was given to the Utah Chief of Police Board of Directors on November 17th with similar results. FACJJ Update – FACJJ will meet Dec. 2 – 3 in Washington D.C., which will be the last meeting for FACJJ as currently constructed. The new structure of the organization will be to have regional representatives, rather than a representative from each state. FACJJ will begin bringing in subject matter national experts and is working on the release of the 2010 report. Please contact Gini if you have any suggestions or concerns for her to address a the December meeting. Agenda Choices Presentation	Utah Board of Juvenile Justice Minutes
Date Time Location	Committee	Utah Board of Juvenile Justice
Time Location Utah State Capitol Complex, Senate Bldg., Spruce Room
Members Gaby Anderson, Pat Berckman, Adam Cohen, Karen Crompton, Patrick Garcia, Gini Highfield Max Jackson, Kaisa Kinikini, Spencer Larsen, James Marchel, Judge James Michie, Troy Rawlings, Rachael Skidmore, Russ Van Vleet Charri Brummer, Maria Garciaz, Princess Gutierrez, Morgan Lawson, Pam Vickrey Excused Craig Dearden Craig Dearden
Members Fresent Gaby Anderson, Pat Berckman, Adam Cohen, Karen Crompton, Patrick Garcia, Gini Highfield Max Jackson, Kaisa Kinikini, Spencer Larsen, James Marchel, Judge James Michie, Troy Rawlings, Rachael Skidmore, Russ Van Vleet Charri Brummer, Maria Garciaz, Princess Gutierrez, Morgan Lawson, Pam Vickrey Excussed Charri Brummer, Maria Garciaz, Princess Gutierrez, Morgan Lawson, Pam Vickrey Charri Brummer, Maria Garciaz, Princess Gutierrez, Morgan Lawson, Pam Vickrey Charri Brummer, Maria Garciaz, Princess Gutierrez, Morgan Lawson, Pam Vickrey Caraig Dearden Absent Caraig Dearden Absent Caraig Dearden Adam Cohen called the meting to order. Judge Michie made the motion to approve the minutes from the October meeting. Karen Crompton seconded the motion which passed unanimously. Agenda Committee and Other Reports Committee and Other Reports Vouth Committee/Do the Write Thing – Rachael Skidmore reported that the deadline for entries is January 18, 2011. A parent of one of last year's essay winners has access to video equipment and would like to tape the awards luncheon at the Governor's mansion. This same parent also has the ability to produce video spots for airing on television. Reg sent an email to principals across the state, promoting DTWT. A letter promoting the same was sent to all sche superintendents. DMC Committee — Pat Berckman spoke about the great presentation given by POST officers our annual meeting. Cuong gave a presentation to the Hispanic Latino Advisory Council to the Governor on November 4. The goal was to raise awareness of DMC and ask the group for the input. Discussion did not go as smoothly as hoped for, but Cuong continues to work with them The same presentation was given to the Utah Chief of Police Board of Directors on November 17th with similar results. FACJJ Update – FACJJ will meet Dec. 2 – 3 in Washington D.C., which will be the last meetir for FACJJ as currently constructed. The new structure of the organization will be to have regional repr	-
Max Jackson, Kaisa Kinikini, Spencer Larsen, James Marchel, Judge James Michie, Troy Rawlings, Rachael Skidmore, Russ Van Vleet	Location	Otan State Capitol Complex, Senate Blog., Spruce Room
Max Jackson, Kaisa Kinikini, Spencer Larsen, James Marchel, Judge James Michie, Troy Rawlings, Rachael Skidmore, Russ Van Vleet	Members	Gaby Anderson, Pat Berckman, Adam Cohen, Karen Crompton, Patrick Garcia, Gini Highfield,
Chair Brummer, Maria Garciaz, Princess Gutierrez, Morgan Lawson, Pam Vickrey		l '
Excused Members Absent
Staff		Charri Brummer, Maria Garciaz, Princess Gutierrez, Morgan Lawson, Pam Vickrey
Agenda Item Notes Committee and Other Reports Committee/Do the Write Thing – Rachael Skidmore reported that the deadline for entries is January 18, 2011. A parent of one of last year's essay winners has access to video equipment and would like to tape the awards luncheon at the Governor's mansion. This same parent also has the ability to produce video spots for airing on television. Reg sent an email to principals across the state, promoting DTWT. A letter promoting the same was sent to all sch superintendents. DMC Committee – Pat Berckman spoke about the great presentation given by POST officers our annual meeting. Cuong gave a presentation to the Hispanic Latino Advisory Council to the Governor on November 4. The goal was to raise awareness of DMC and ask the group for the input. Discussion did not go as smoothly as hoped for, but Cuong continues to work with them The same presentation was given to the Utah Chief of Police Board of Directors on November 17th with similar results. FACJJ Update – FACJJ will meet Dec. 2 – 3 in Washington D.C., which will be the last meetir for FACJJ as currently constructed. The new structure of the organization will be to have regional representatives, rather than a representative from each state. FACJJ will begin bringing in subject matter national experts and is working on the release of the 2010 report. Please contact Gini if you have any suggestions or concerns for her to address a the December meeting.
Reg Garff, Jo Lynn Kruse, Cuong Nguyen and Visitors: Sarah Maser, Moises Prospero		Craig Dearden
Agenda Item Notes Adam Cohen called the meeting to order. Judge Michie made the motion to approve the minutes from the October meeting. Karen Crompton seconded the motion which passed unanimously. Agenda Item Notes Committee and Other Reports Youth Committee/Do the Write Thing – Rachael Skidmore reported that the deadline for entries is January 18, 2011. A parent of one of last year's essay winners has access to video equipment and would like to tape the awards luncheon at the Governor's mansion. This same parent also has the ability to produce video spots for airing on television. Reg sent an email to principals across the state, promoting DTWT. A letter promoting he same was sent to all schools superintendents. DMC Committee – Pat Berckman spoke about the great presentation given by POST officers our annual meeting. Cuong gave a presentation to the Hispanic Latino Advisory Council to the Governor on November 4. The goal was to raise awareness of DMC and ask the group for the input. Discussion did not go as smoothly as hoped for, but Cuong continues to work with them The same presentation was given to the Utah Chief of Police Board of Directors on November 17th with similar results. FACJJ Update – FACJJ will meet Dec. 2 – 3 in Washington D.C., which will be the last meeting for FACJJ as currently constructed. The new structure of the organization will be to have regional representatives, rather than a representative from each state. FACJJ will begin bringing in subject matter national experts and is working on the release of the 2010 report. Please contact Gini if you have any suggestions or concerns for her to address a the December meeting.		Pog Carff, Jo Lyan Kruso, Cuang Nguyan and
Agenda Item Notes Adam Cohen called the meeting to order. Judge Michie made the motion to approve the minutes from the October meeting. Karen Crompton seconded the motion which passed unanimously. Agenda Item Committee and Other Reports Youth Committee/Do the Write Thing — Rachael Skidmore reported that the deadline for entries is January 18, 2011. A parent of one of last year's essay winners has access to video equipment and would like to tape the awards luncheon at the Governor's mansion. This same parent also has the ability to produce video spots for airing on television. Reg sent an email to principals across the state, promoting DTWT. A letter promoting the same was sent to all scho superintendents. DMC Committee — Pat Berckman spoke about the great presentation given by POST officers our annual meeting. Cuong gave a presentation to the Hispanic Latino Advisory Council to the Governor on November 4. The goal was to raise awareness of DMC and ask the group for the input. Discussion did not go as smoothly as hoped for, but Cuong continues to work with them The same presentation was given to the Utah Chief of Police Board of Directors on November 17th with similar results. FACJJ Update — FACJJ will meet Dec. 2 — 3 in Washington D.C., which will be the last meetir for FACJJ as currently constructed. The new structure of the organization will be to have regional representatives, rather than a representative from each state. FACJJ will begin bringing in subject matter national experts and is working on the release of the 2010 report. Please contact Gini if you have any suggestions or concerns for her to address a the December meeting.	Stair
Notes Adam Cohen called the meeting to order. Judge Michie made the motion to approve the minutes from the October meeting. Karen Crompton seconded the motion which passed unanimously. Agenda Item Notes Committee and Other Reports Youth Committee/Do the Write Thing – Rachael Skidmore reported that the deadline for entries is January 18, 2011. A parent of one of last year's essay winners has access to video equipment and would like to tape the awards luncheon at the Governor's mansion. This same parent also has the ability to produce video spots for airing on television. Reg sent an email to principals across the state, promoting DTWT. A letter promoting the same was sent to all schools superintendents. DMC Committee – Pat Berckman spoke about the great presentation given by POST officers our annual meeting. Cuong gave a presentation to the Hispanic Latino Advisory Council to the Governor on November 4. The goal was to raise awareness of DMC and ask the group for the input. Discussion did not go as smoothly as hoped for, but Cuong continues to work with them The same presentation was given to the Utah Chief of Police Board of Directors on November 17th with similar results. FACJJ Update – FACJJ will meet Dec. 2 – 3 in Washington D.C., which will be the last meetir for FACJJ as currently constructed. The new structure of the organization will be to have regional representatives, rather than a representative from each state. FACJJ will begin bringing in subject matter national experts and is working on the release of the 2010 report. Please contact Gini if you have any suggestions or concerns for her to address a the December meeting.		T Protected Guitari Museur, Molecula Troopero
Notes Adam Cohen called the meeting to order. Judge Michie made the motion to approve the minutes from the October meeting. Karen Crompton seconded the motion which passed unanimously. Agenda Item Notes Youth Committee and Other Reports Youth Committee/Do the Write Thing — Rachael Skidmore reported that the deadline for entries is January 18, 2011. A parent of one of last year's essay winners has access to video equipment and would like to tape the awards luncheon at the Governor's mansion. This same parent also has the ability to produce video spots for airing on television. Reg sent an email to principals across the state, promoting DTWT. A letter promoting the same was sent to all schoos superintendents. DMC Committee — Pat Berckman spoke about the great presentation given by POST officers our annual meeting. Cuong gave a presentation to the Hispanic Latino Advisory Council to the Governor on November 4. The goal was to raise awareness of DMC and ask the group for the input. Discussion did not go as smoothly as hoped for, but Cuong continues to work with them The same presentation was given to the Utah Chief of Police Board of Directors on November 17th with similar results. FACJJ Update — FACJJ will meet Dec. 2 — 3 in Washington D.C., which will be the last meeting for FACJJ as currently constructed. The new structure of the organization will be to have regional representatives, rather than a representative from each state. FACJJ will begin bringing in subject matter national experts and is working on the release of the 2010 report. Please contact Gini if you have any suggestions or concerns for her to address a the December meeting.	•	Welcome and Chair's Report
Agenda Item Committee and Other Reports Youth Committee/Do the Write Thing – Rachael Skidmore reported that the deadline for entries is January 18, 2011. A parent of one of last year's essay winners has access to video equipment and would like to tape the awards luncheon at the Governor's mansion. This same parent also has the ability to produce video spots for airing on television. Reg sent an email to principals across the state, promoting DTWT. A letter promoting the same was sent to all schools superintendents. DMC Committee – Pat Berckman spoke about the great presentation given by POST officers our annual meeting. Cuong gave a presentation to the Hispanic Latino Advisory Council to the Governor on November 4. The goal was to raise awareness of DMC and ask the group for the input. Discussion did not go as smoothly as hoped for, but Cuong continues to work with them The same presentation was given to the Utah Chief of Police Board of Directors on November 17th with similar results. FACJJ Update – FACJJ will meet Dec. 2 – 3 in Washington D.C., which will be the last meeting for FACJJ as currently constructed. The new structure of the organization will be to have regional representatives, rather than a representative from each state. FACJJ will begin bringing in subject matter national experts and is working on the release of the 2010 report. Please contact Gini if you have any suggestions or concerns for her to address a the December meeting.		-
Agenda Item Committee and Other Reports Youth Committee/Do the Write Thing – Rachael Skidmore reported that the deadline for entries is January 18, 2011. A parent of one of last year's essay winners has access to video equipment and would like to tape the awards luncheon at the Governor's mansion. This same parent also has the ability to produce video spots for airing on television. Reg sent an email to principals across the state, promoting DTWT. A letter promoting the same was sent to all scho superintendents. DMC Committee – Pat Berckman spoke about the great presentation given by POST officers our annual meeting. Cuong gave a presentation to the Hispanic Latino Advisory Council to the Governor on November 4. The goal was to raise awareness of DMC and ask the group for the input. Discussion did not go as smoothly as hoped for, but Cuong continues to work with them The same presentation was given to the Utah Chief of Police Board of Directors on November 17th with similar results. FACJJ Update – FACJJ will meet Dec. 2 – 3 in Washington D.C., which will be the last meetir for FACJJ as currently constructed. The new structure of the organization will be to have regional representatives, rather than a representative from each state. FACJJ will begin bringing in subject matter national experts and is working on the release of the 2010 report. Please contact Gini if you have any suggestions or concerns for her to address a the December meeting.	Notes
Agenda Item Youth Committee/Do the Write Thing – Rachael Skidmore reported that the deadline for entries is January 18, 2011. A parent of one of last year's essay winners has access to video equipment and would like to tape the awards luncheon at the Governor's mansion. This same parent also has the ability to produce video spots for airing on television. Reg sent an email to principals across the state, promoting DTWT. A letter promoting the same was sent to all schools superintendents. DMC Committee – Pat Berckman spoke about the great presentation given by POST officers our annual meeting. Cuong gave a presentation to the Hispanic Latino Advisory Council to the Governor on November 4. The goal was to raise awareness of DMC and ask the group for the input. Discussion did not go as smoothly as hoped for, but Cuong continues to work with them The same presentation was given to the Utah Chief of Police Board of Directors on November 17th with similar results. FACJJ Update – FACJJ will meet Dec. 2 – 3 in Washington D.C., which will be the last meeting for FACJJ as currently constructed. The new structure of the organization will be to have regional representatives, rather than a representative from each state. FACJJ will begin bringing in subject matter national experts and is working on the release of the 2010 report. Please contact Gini if you have any suggestions or concerns for her to address a the December meeting.
Notes Youth Committee/Do the Write Thing – Rachael Skidmore reported that the deadline for entries is January 18, 2011. A parent of one of last year's essay winners has access to video equipment and would like to tape the awards luncheon at the Governor's mansion. This same parent also has the ability to produce video spots for airing on television. Reg sent an email to principals across the state, promoting DTWT. A letter promoting the same was sent to all schools superintendents. DMC Committee – Pat Berckman spoke about the great presentation given by POST officers our annual meeting. Cuong gave a presentation to the Hispanic Latino Advisory Council to the Governor on November 4. The goal was to raise awareness of DMC and ask the group for the input. Discussion did not go as smoothly as hoped for, but Cuong continues to work with them The same presentation was given to the Utah Chief of Police Board of Directors on November 17th with similar results. FACJJ Update – FACJJ will meet Dec. 2 – 3 in Washington D.C., which will be the last meeting for FACJJ as currently constructed. The new structure of the organization will be to have regional representatives, rather than a representative from each state. FACJJ will begin bringing in subject matter national experts and is working on the release of the 2010 report. Please contact Gini if you have any suggestions or concerns for her to address a the December meeting.	-
Notes Youth Committee/Do the Write Thing — Rachael Skidmore reported that the deadline for entries is January 18, 2011. A parent of one of last year's essay winners has access to video equipment and would like to tape the awards luncheon at the Governor's mansion. This same parent also has the ability to produce video spots for airing on television. Reg sent an email to principals across the state, promoting DTWT. A letter promoting the same was sent to all schools superintendents. DMC Committee — Pat Berckman spoke about the great presentation given by POST officers our annual meeting. Cuong gave a presentation to the Hispanic Latino Advisory Council to the Governor on November 4. The goal was to raise awareness of DMC and ask the group for the input. Discussion did not go as smoothly as hoped for, but Cuong continues to work with them The same presentation was given to the Utah Chief of Police Board of Directors on November 17th with similar results. FACJJ Update — FACJJ will meet Dec. 2 — 3 in Washington D.C., which will be the last meeting for FACJJ as currently constructed. The new structure of the organization will be to have regional representatives, rather than a representative from each state. FACJJ will begin bringing in subject matter national experts and is working on the release of the 2010 report. Please contact Gini if you have any suggestions or concerns for her to address a the December meeting.		Committee and Other Reports entries is January 18, 2011. A parent of one of last year's essay winners has access to video equipment and would like to tape the awards luncheon at the Governor's mansion. This same parent also has the ability to produce video spots for airing on television. Reg sent an email to principals across the state, promoting DTWT. A letter promoting the same was sent to all schools superintendents. DMC Committee – Pat Berckman spoke about the great presentation given by POST officers our annual meeting. Cuong gave a presentation to the Hispanic Latino Advisory Council to the Governor on November 4. The goal was to raise awareness of DMC and ask the group for the input. Discussion did not go as smoothly as hoped for, but Cuong continues to work with them The same presentation was given to the Utah Chief of Police Board of Directors on November 17th with similar results. FACJJ Update – FACJJ will meet Dec. 2 – 3 in Washington D.C., which will be the last meeting for FACJJ as currently constructed. The new structure of the organization will be to have regional representatives, rather than a representative from each state. FACJJ will begin bringing in subject matter national experts and is working on the release of the 2010 report. Please contact Gini if you have any suggestions or concerns for her to address a the December meeting.		-
1 COORES PRESENTATION	Notes	entries is January 18, 2011. A parent of one of last year's essay winners has access to video equipment and would like to tape the awards luncheon at the Governor's mansion. This same parent also has the ability to produce video spots for airing on television. Reg sent an email to principals across the state, promoting DTWT. A letter promoting the same was sent to all school superintendents. DMC Committee – Pat Berckman spoke about the great presentation given by POST officers at our annual meeting. Cuong gave a presentation to the Hispanic Latino Advisory Council to the Governor on November 4. The goal was to raise awareness of DMC and ask the group for their input. Discussion did not go as smoothly as hoped for, but Cuong continues to work with them. The same presentation was given to the Utah Chief of Police Board of Directors on November 17th with similar results. FACJJ Update – FACJJ will meet Dec. 2 – 3 in Washington D.C., which will be the last meeting for FACJJ as currently constructed. The new structure of the organization will be to have regional representatives, rather than a representative from each state. FACJJ will begin bringing in subject matter national experts and is working on the release of the 2010 report. Please contact Gini if you have any suggestions or concerns for her to address at
	Item
offender treatment program. CFD provides outpatient services to youth (ages 10 – 19) who had been adjudicated delinquent on juvenile sexual offense charges. Treatment is specifically tailored to each client's needs, offering short or long-term therapy as well as individual, group and family therapy.	Notes	tailored to each client's needs, offering short or long-term therapy as well as individual, group the community regarding how early intervention is quite successful. CFD is currently in their		the community regarding how early intervention is quite successful. CFD is currently in their second year of funding from UBJJ and working to secure sustaining funds from other sources for
Agenda Juvenile Justice Specialist Report	Agenda	Juvenile Justice Specialist Report

ILEIII
Notes	Board travel to attend conferences is tentatively authorized for 2011. Site visits must be completed to qualify for travel. Please contact Reg when you plan site visits. Russ Van Vleet and Patrick Garcia volunteered to visit Green River's, Too Good for Drugs program.
	A compliance audit is scheduled in late November. The Deputy Director of OJJDP will be here and Treva Bell is putting together the agenda for the planned visit.
Agenda Item	2011 Title II Priorities
Notes	 The Board reviewed Reg's draft of priorities 1 – 4, which will be used for the RFP. The first four priorities are: Delinquency prevention projects for children grades kindergarten through eight. Expand and improve sex offender services and resources within the juvenile justice system. Reduce the disproportionate representation of minority youth at decision points within the juvenile justice system from arrest through transfer and waiver to the adult system. Expand drug and alcohol treatment services for youth. Judge Michie made the motion to approve the priorities as discussed and amended. Pat Berckman seconded the motion which passed unanimously.
Next Meeting	The next meeting is scheduled for 8 a.m., Thursday, January 20, 2011, State Capitol Complex, Senate Bldg., Beehive Room.

Minutes prepared by Jo Lynn Kruse – Administrative Assistant

Item